RESPONDING TO THE WORD

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (Please stand.) Elder

We believe Christ gives us and demands of us

lives in pilgrimage toward God's kingdom.

Like Christ we may enjoy on our journey

all that sustains life and makes it pleasant and beautiful.

No more than Christ are we spared

the darkness, ambiguity, and threat of life in the world.

We are in the world, but not of the world.

Christ calls each of us to a life appropriate to that kingdom:

to serve as he has served us;

to take up our cross,

risking the consequences of faithful discipleship;

to walk by faith, not by sight,

to hope for what we have not seen. Amen.

—from A Declaration of Faith (1977)

"...For who among us in our ecstasy, and especially our agony, needs a God of certitude? For it is the ache of our heart and the yearning of our body that we should finally be attended to by one who is full of grace, full of truth. The narrative of the God of fidelity lives in deep conflict with the syllogism/ [circular reasoning] of the gods of certitude. The gods of certitude are often in control, control through moralism, through settled orthodoxy, through the ideology often allied with the rulers of this age. But in the midst of the God of certitude there is this burst of the God of fidelity..."
